

This is schedule from May 15 (Monday) through May 28 (Sunday) with different shows each day. Then same shows repeat for following two weeks. New schedule will be posted for June 12, 2017

We are still in testing stage. If you find that a particular show has been replaced with classical music, this indicates that KCPK has encountered a broadcasting problem. Typically, the problem is resolved by the following day. We appreciate your comments about problems.

Sign-on at approximately 6:55 a.m.: KCPK is an affiliate of Pacifica Radio Network. KCPK airs programs from all over the U.S. which are produced by affiliates. KCPK plans to offer local programming to the Pacifica Radio network, by uploading locally produced shows and giving our community producers the opportunity to broadcast nationally as well as locally. We conclude our sign-on with our theme song written for our area's historical documentary, "The Coming of Asphalt as told through Rural Storytelling Performance Art. You can view this video at our website under tab Cal Humanities Video. The theme song is entitled "The Road to Take Us Home" and is written and performed by Lily Landers, Kevin Davis, and Murphy Cross. Any programming you may have heard prior to KCPK's sign-on was coming from a large FM station from Bakersfield at FM 107.1 which over-powers our frequency 106.9 before we sign on the air.

7: 00 a.m. Democracy Now: 1 hr stream from Pacifica (Monday through Friday only)

Democracy Now! is a national, daily, independent, award-winning news program hosted by journalists Amy Goodman and Juan Gonzalez.

8:00 a.m. Poetry Readings: 1 hr. program (two 29 min. segments) (Monday through Friday only)

Various poets read their writings.

7:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. Classical Music: (Saturday & Sunday replacement):

2 hr. program (two 1 hr. segments) Various classical musical broadcastings. One show is Baroque and Beyond, a radio show devoted to Baroque and Classical Music ("and a little bit of 'beyond') for Pacifica-affiliated stations. Produced by Michael White, who is a physician in his "day job" and is not a music professional.

9:00 a.m. Politics of Health & Fitness: 1 hr.

Produced by Layna Berman, a health educator and health integration specialist. She brings over twenty years of experience, skill, and knowledge to support people in solving health and health care problems.

10:00 a.m. Book Reviews: 1 hr.

Francesca Rheannon is an independent radio producer and show host of a talk show about writing, writers and their works, that has been on the air since 2004.

11:00 a.m. Food Politics: 1 hr. (two 29 min segments)

The Root Stock Radio show focuses on food, farming, and family. Each show will illuminate and educate listeners about the good food movement— the challenges faced, the change makers and grass root initiatives that provide promising sparks— and provide solid information about what each of us can do to work toward a healthy, sustainable, and just food system.

12:00 p.m. Oldies Music: 1 hr.

This is a radio show that highlights the wonderful group harmony and rock and roll music of the 50's and the early 60's. Story Untold goes well beyond the hits and plays B-sides, LP only cuts and exclusive, unreleased material from the record collection of the show's host, P.J. Noce.

1:00 p.m. Psychology Talks: 1 hr.

MyNDTALK, by psychologist Pamela Brewer, is intended for adults 18 years+ for use as one of the resources utilized in the ongoing acquisition of quality relationship health and mental health information. Listeners are encouraged to research, question, review all forms of information/education particularly as it pertains to physical/emotional/social/psychological/relationship/mental health.

2:00 p.m. Politics & Activism: 1 hr.

This week and over the coming weeks and months, the producer Lyn Gerry, is going to read a book called Power and Powerlessness. The author is Susan Rosenthal, a physician and psychotherapist who reached the conclusion after decades of research, observation and activism that social power is necessary for human health. Her book deals with four basic questions: what's going on, how did this happen, why do we put up with it, and what will it take.

3:00 p.m. The Rock'n Down Under Show: 1 hr.

Celebrating the music and musicians of Australia exclusively, produced by Bronx Bob Kiwi Belle. Some shortened shows will be followed by shorts produced by Nancy Casey, a writer who reads her own work.

4:00 p.m. Kids Stories: 1 hr. (two 29 min. segments)

It is two half hour shows for children ages 5-11. Every show features a story read with sound effects and music, a puzzle, and a youth segment where one or more kids read their own stories.

5:00 p.m. Flashpoints: 1 hr. stream from Pacifica (Monday through Friday only)

An award winning front-line investigative news magazine, focusing on human, civil and workers' rights, issues of war and peace, Global Warming, racism and poverty, and other issues. Hosted by Dennis J. Bernstein.

6:00 p.m. Pacifica Evening News: 1 hr. stream from Pacific (Monday through Friday only)

The Pacifica Evening News is a collaboration of KPFA and KPFK in Los Angeles and KFCF in Fresno. Comprehensive coverage of the day's news with a focus on war and peace; social, environmental, and economic justice.

5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Classical Music: (Saturday & Sunday Replacement):

2 hr. program (two 1 hr. segments) Various classical musical broadcastings. One show is Baroque and Beyond, a radio show devoted to Baroque and Classical Music ("and a little bit of 'beyond') for Pacifica-affiliated stations. Produced by Michael White, who is a physician in his "day job" and is not a music professional.

7:00 p.m. Modern Jazz Today: 1 hr.

This is a radio show that focuses on the cutting edge of sound. It is showcased as an avenue for discovering a new generation of jazz musicians, composers, improvisers, and arrangers.

8:00 p.m. A Tale of Two Cities: 1 hr.

This is a reading of the classic by Charles Dickens, performed by Jane Aker, and produced by "LoudLit.org" which is committed to delivering public domain literature. To "read along", go to their website for the text. This reading will cover 14 days of our broadcasting, then repeat in chapter sequence for the next 14 days.

9:00 p.m. (approx. time) The Sonic Cafe: 1 hr.

This show will follow the reading of “A Tale of Two Cities” which does not end exactly at one hour. The Sonic Café features a mix of music, comedy, and pop culture covering the past 30 to 60 years. The show is set in an imaginary café which serves this intelligent eclectic content rather than meals. All announcer voiceovers are presented over the background noise of a busy café to create a “theatre of the mind experience” for listeners.

10:00 p.m. sign-off:

We conclude our sign-off with our theme song. Any programming you may hear after KCPK’s sign-off is coming from a large FM station from Bakersfield at FM 107.1 which over-powers our frequency 106.9 once we sign off the air.